

Dictation Activity 1

happiness	section	Introduction	option	shouldn't
any	kind	playful	many	A dog's

An _____ to Looking After a Dog

_____ tail wags with _____ when people are _____ to him. Your dog will love _____ fuss or _____ attention.

Food

Are you unsure about what to feed your new dog? Read this
_____ to find out more.

Dry biscuits are a good _____ but so are cans
of dog meat. You _____ ever give a dog
chocolate and limit how _____ treats you give
your pet.

Dictation Activity 2

Mr	addition	fiction	couldn't	cheerful
lovely	A child's	happily	subtraction	plentiful

_____ face is
a _____ thing to see," said _____ Brookes,
the new teacher.

"Today we are going to be doing _____ and
_____, and looking at your _____
selection of _____ books."

The children moved _____ to their maths
groups as they _____ wait to get started.

Dictation Activity 3(a)

clothes	station	National	beautiful
didn't	The woman's	quickly	slowly

_____ were _____

_____ but _____ keep her

warm so she marched _____ towards the
_____.

She walked into the _____ Transport Ticket

Office feeling better now as she was _____ warming up. At the front of the line, she looked in her handbag and realised she had left her purse at home.

Dictation Activity 3(b)

careless	peniless
----------	----------

Dictation Activity 1

An _____ to Looking After a Dog

_____ tail wags with

_____ when people are _____

to him. Your dog will love _____ fuss or _____ attention.

Food

Are you unsure about what to feed your new dog? Read this
_____ to find out more.

Dry biscuits are a good _____ but so are cans
of dog meat. You _____ ever give a dog
chocolate and limit how _____ treats you give
your pet.

Spelling | Year 2 | Term 3A

Dictation Activity 2

_____ face is

a _____ thing to see," said _____ Brookes,
the new teacher.

"Today we are going to be doing _____ and
_____, and looking at your _____
selection of _____ books."

The children moved _____ to their maths
groups as they _____ wait to get started.

Spelling | Year 2 | Term 3A

Dictation Activity 3(a)

The _____ were _____
but _____ keep her warm so she marched _____ towards the _____.
She walked into the _____ Transport Ticket
Office feeling better now as she was _____
warming up. At the front of the line, she looked in her handbag and realised she had left her purse at home.

plan it

Spelling | Year 2 | Term 3A

Dictation Activity 3(b)

plan it

Spelling | Year 2 | Term 3A

Dictation Activity Answers

Dictation Activity 1

An Introduction to Looking After a Dog

A dog's tail wags with happiness when people are kind to him. Your dog will love any fuss or playful attention.

Food

Are you unsure about what to feed your new dog? Read this section to find out more.

Dry biscuits are a good option but so are cans of dog meat. You shouldn't ever give a dog chocolate and limit how many treats you give your pet.

Dictation Activity 2

A child's cheerful face is a lovely thing to see," said Mr Brookes the new teacher.

"Today we are going to be doing addition and subtraction, and looking at your plentiful selection of fiction books."

The children moved happily to their maths groups as they couldn't wait to get started.

Dictation Activity 3

(a)

The woman's clothes were beautiful but didn't keep her warm so she marched quickly towards the station.

She walked into the National Transport Ticket Office feeling better now as she was slowly warming up.

At the front of the line, she looked in her handbag and realised she had left her purse at home.

(b)

"How careless of me! I am penniless," she muttered under her breath