Thank you. • https://www.ruthmiskin.com/en/find-out-more/parents/ • Look on the inside cover of your child's reading book to see the guidance on how to use the book to get the most out of the text. • Practise the 'green' and 'red' words on the inside cover until your child can read them without overtly sounding out (they may still need to 'Fred in their head') • Discuss any new or unfamiliar words • Once confident, then begin reading the story. • Aim for at least 3 read throughs - 1 to decode, 2 - to improve sight vocabulary and pace, 3 - to read 'like a storyteller' and fully understand what they have read. • Finally use the suggested questions in the back of the reading book to ensure your child has fully understood what they have read. Can they find the correct page/word/phrase that answers the question - we call this 'Find it - Prove it' in school so that children develop their retrieval skills rather than rely on their memory of what they have read. • Continue to share any stories to promote a love of books and reading, picking out any unusual or new words and discussing their meaning. We have these in school and call them 'WOW words' - can you keep a collection of words you like/find in a notebook? Spelling <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • New Spellings this week: play; way; stay; today; says; boy; toy; enjoy; annoy; royal.

Can you find other words that match the spelling patterns/rule? Writing Linked to your child's reading/RWI level: 'Hold a sentence' activities really help build children's confidence and understanding of sentence structure. Using your child's reading book as a guide to expected level, write a simple sentence together, modelling and emphasising: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Capital letters Spaces between words All words in the sentence All sounds in each word Punctuation - full stop or question mark Use Think it - Say it - Write it - Check it strategy Once you have written the sentence for your child to see what it should look like, read it together. Point out any 'special friend' sounds (digraphs/trigraphs) or 'red' words (common exception words). Next hide/cover the sentence and encourage your child to write the sentence for themselves. Repeat this several times across a week, making changes to the words you use. If your child is confident you may start adding to the length of the sentences you use by adding additional detail through use of adjectives. E.g. Start: 'The dog sat on a rug.' Extend to : 'The black dog sat on the soft red rug.' Writing Ideas linked to theme/topic: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can you compose a series of sentences about Diwali? Perhaps how Hindu's celebrate the festival or a retell the story of Rama and Sita? Two or more simple sentences correctly punctuated with capital letters, spaces and full stops would be the aim. Alternatively, you could also encourage your child to draw and label a simple Diwali lamp. Handwriting

Create your own poppies for display in your windows in lieu of a Remembrance Day parade. Children in Need. 	craft.	Art - Can you use chalks, pastels, crayons, paints or a mixture of these to create your own Bonfire Night artwork? Computing - This half term in school we will be using the app 'Draw & Tell' to build up skills in order to create a digital / ebook. Currently, this is a free app and you may wish to download it to your phone/tablet to use at home. Alternatively, any digital drawing app/tool will help your child learn about changing colour, lines, shapes, style, inserting 'stickers' and/or text, resizing and moving things on a page. Music - encourage your child to use their voice expressively, singing along to their favourite songs or rhymes. RE - Can you help your child learn about aspects of the Hindi festival Diwali? Learning about the values and customs of those from different faiths and backgrounds helps develop tolerance, respect and understanding of what is meant by diversity; different cultures, customs and traditions of people in the UK. In school this week Mr Benefield will be revisiting the story of Diwali. (See our class webpage for an age appropriate version to share at home too) Children will also be using clay, beads and scoring tools to create their own Diwali lamps. Could you do this using dough?
Physical	Commando Joes - Multi skills sessions lead by Newcastle United Foundation - building on from last half term's skills of teamwork, resilience and communications	Encourage your child to remain active whilst not at school. Plenty of 'wiggle breaks' during the day to avoid sitting for too long. Have a look at the resources at GoNoodle on the link below. A range of guided dance, workouts, mindfulness and yoga videos are available. You can create an account or can view a selection of the videos without an account. https://family.gonoodle.com/ This half term we will be developing our skills, resilience and respectful attitude through multi-skills sessions. These will include missions and challenges that involve throwing, catching, agility, balance amongst others. You can join in at home using things such as rolled up socks or a balloon as a safe alternative to a ball/beanbag in doors to develop hand-eye coordination and catching.
