

Shackleton's Journey

By the end of the lesson we will..

1. Ask questions about a book
2. Make predictions about a book
3. Make links to our learning and experiences
4. Share inferences

I'm thinking...

I am noticing...

This makes me think of...

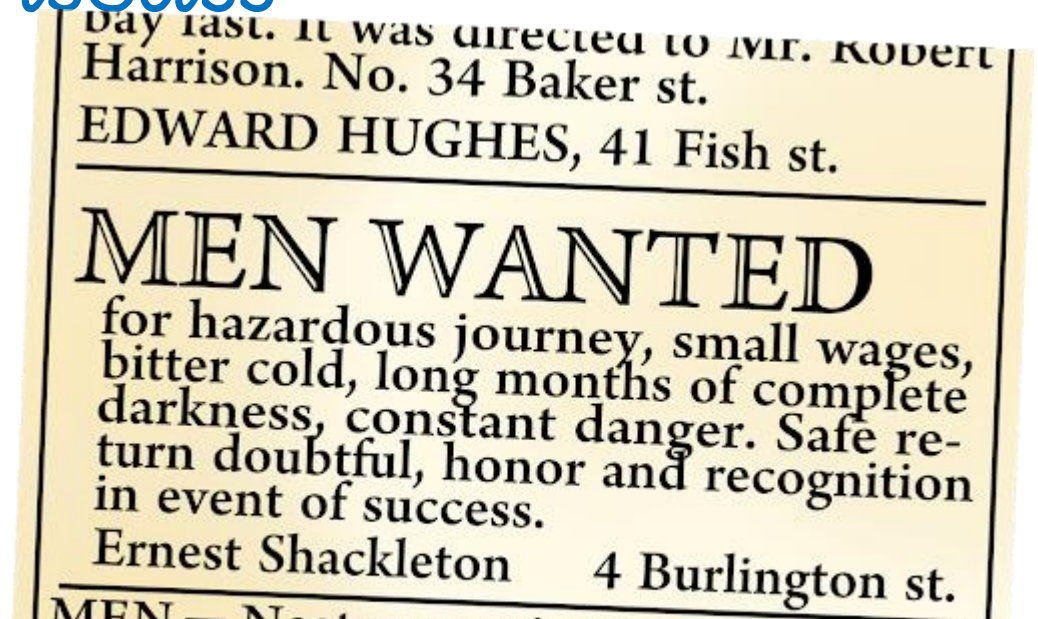

Perhaps..

Maybe...

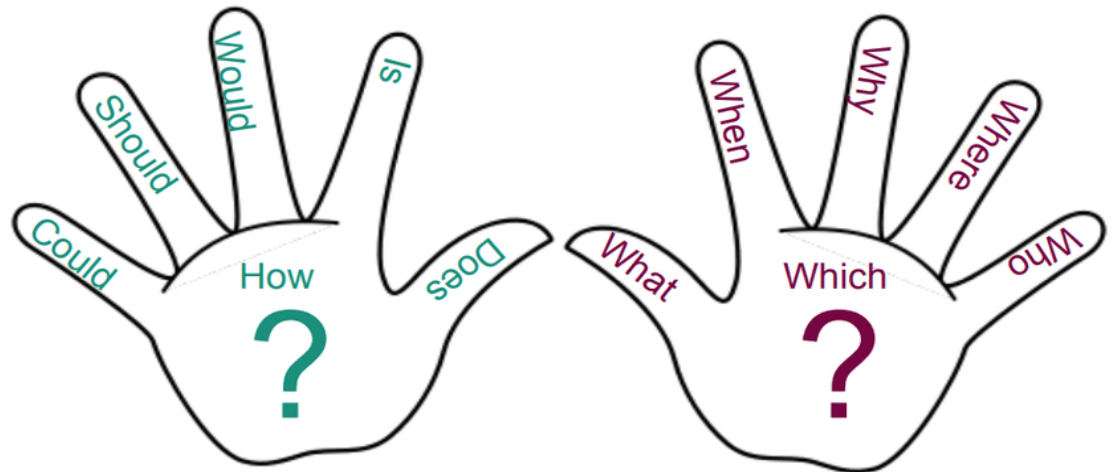

This reminds me of...

I'm picturing..

Your task

- Ask questions
- Make predictions
- Make statements
- Make links to your previous learning or experiences

Imagine you are one of the 5000 people that applied for the job. Only 26 people are needed. How would you convince Shackleton to hire you?

Day last. It was directed to Mr. Robert Harrison. No. 34 Baker st.

What qualities do you think he would be looking for?

What qualities do you think a crew member needs?

What qualities do you think he would have as leader?

Your task

- We are going to hot-seat the role of Shackleton or a potential crew member.

Take it in turns with your partner to ask each other questions and think about your answer.

What questions would Shackleton ask?

What questions would a crew member ask?

- Why do you want the job?
- Why should I hire you?
- When have you shown resilience?
- Do you think you would work well as a team?
- Are you good at following orders?
- Can you work hard on little food and sleep?

- Where are we going?
- How long will the voyage be?
- How much will we be paid?
- Can my wife and family come?
- Will we survive?
- What are you like as a leader?
